Flying Glass Slightly Injures

Miss Bockwinkel, While Her

Mother Escapes Unharmed.

A collision between Broadway car No

385 and Lee avenue car No. 1547, at the corner of Broadway and Pine street, shortly before 7 o'clock last night resulted in wrecking the cars and injuring the shock to her nervous system. Miss Katte Beckwinkel of No. 1509 Case ave-nue was slightly injured by flying glass, while her mother, Mrs. Frank H. Bockwinkel, was onbarmed.

The cars came together with force. The front platform of the Brondway car was almost wrenched off, while the side of the Lee avenue car was crushed and broken and the window panes shaltered.

Mrs. Adhesic and Mrs. and Misa Bockwinkel were setting on the south side of the Lee avenine car. The crash came before they could move, and had the women been sitting on the other ande of the car they would doubtiess have been seriously injured.

For several seconds following the collision pieces of truken glass came down in showers. The shouts of persons that witnessed the accident, with the sudden extinguishment of the lights in the cat, proved too much for Mrs. Althage, and she

The question of why one man succeeds and another fails is a problem that has puzzled philosochers for centuries. One man attains riches and position, while his neighbor who started with seemingly the same and better opportunities, exists in poverty and obscurity. No man can win success who is suffering from an trittating and nerve-racking disease and the man who has the qualities of success within him would be quick to recognize this fact and selize the best remedy to eradicate the trouble.
